Ekklesia Contemporary Ballet presents its 15th annual performance of

Ahavah: The Story of Christmas!

Due to COVID we will be presenting an abridged version of Ahavah in our black box theater. Each ticket purchase will include two streams: last year's 2019 Full production and the 2020 abridged version. The streamed performances will be released virtually on Saturday, December 5 at 2:00 pm and will be available through 12:00 am on December 7. All proceeds from the performances will be donated to:

St. Vincent de Paul Soup Kitchen in Middletown, CT.

Ahavah is a delight for the whole family taking you back in time, to experience the story of Christmas. The joy and enchantment of the season are palpable in the telling of this timeless story.

Ahavah: The Story of Christmas is sponsored in part by

Church Of The Holy Trinity of Middletown, CT
